NAME THE DAY.

JUL 29 '21 ✓

By Hal Roach. ✓

After you get the girl to say Y E S - the next hardest thing is to have her name the day when she decides to give up her single blessedness. Our hero had been given both, but unfortunately he forget to name the place where, the time when, and the result is a mix up of grooms and brides, locations, ministers at al which create in themselves many sources of real honest humor. Incidentally, in the delays that occur, the next best suitor tries to get in his dirty work and even offers to go to work if the girl will only marry him. But she is a wise girl, she can see that he would not go to work for long, and the pretenses of this off-time rejected suitor carry no weight with her and she again gives him the air. But our hero is persistent -- and when he cannot get a minister long enough in one church to marry him, he seeks the JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, who ties the knot and gives him soul control to right and privileges forever and thus he- was --married.

THE END.
